EXPERIENCE:

CEO & Founder of SoleOrganizer, LLC: 2014-Present

- Responsible for organizing multiple clients' spaces by de-cluttering and implementing organizational systems and products to ensure an organized and functional space; i.e. closets, office spaces + pantries.
- Creates, designs and edits blog + newsletter content for target audience related to organization, productivity and de-cluttering tips.

PUBLIC SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS:

Young Nonprofit Professionals Network of DC, Washington, D.C.: October 2017

- Presented to an intimate group of individuals employed by non-profits and shared actionable tips on how to prevent clutter and promote productivity with limited guidance from management. The group walked away gaining a better understanding of how to implement the tips at work to enhance their productivity and work ethic.

Charles E. Miller, Howard County Library, Columbia, MD: May 2017

- Presented to an audience of 25 registrants discussing how to get organized in the New Year. Shared simple "how to" steps to de-clutter and promoted organizing products to utilize. Audience left the presentation feeling encouraged to organize their own space(s).
